
CANVAS

The debut EP by new UK talent André, the Kid

Announcing the release of CANVAS, the first EP by new British talent, André, the Kid.

The album is based on a simple concept... simplicity.

André is a 20-year old singer-songwriter and producer from South-East London. Think Prince meets Childish Gambino. Titled after colours, André draws the listener to the heart of his creativity, gently encouraging them to listen without expectation from the title; but to feel the music through colour and build up their own story: CANVAS.

The EP is an eclectic, exciting mix of hip hop and electro soul that will take you to another zone.
